Did you know...?

The job of mail carrier had some serious drawbacks, as noted in a local newspaper on August 8, 1919:

"L.B. Green, the rural route mail carrier, is certainly having hard luck in cranking his Ford. Twice within a year he has had his right arm broken while performing that operation. The last accident happened Sunday morning on Main Street, when the engine "kicked" as he was cranking it. The bone was broken at the wrist and shattered between the wrist and the elbow. He was laid up for several weeks about 11 months ago from the same cause. This accident will give him another expensive and disagreeable experience. Mrs. Green will substitute on the mail route while he is laid up."

Abraham Lincoln/Grace Bedell Presentation

President Lincoln and Grace Bedell love St. Jude Kids. They will perform on July 30th at 6PM at the Tremont Community Center. Come learn the history of Lincoln and Grace and donate to the Tremont St. Jude Runners.

Abbey Kinhead, a 3rd grader at TGS, will perform as Grace. Afterwards, join Lincoln and Grace at Perdue's to visit and take pictures. Perdue's will donate 10% of sales from 3-8PM that day to the Tremont St. Jude Runners. Dine in only. There is a 100 person limit at the Center, so if we are fortunate enough to exceed that, Lincoln and Grace will perform again at 7PM.
